SARASTI ROUTED.

It was a day of accidents at the Quaker City.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—A wagon driven by William Hasson was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad locomotive at Broad-street crossing this morning.

The vehicle was smashed and Hasson was instantly killed. Edward Miskell and John Hasson were seriously injured internally. About the same time in another part of the city, Martin Ervin, while crossing the tracks at the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was struck by a locomotive and instantly killed. While Stanley, 6 years old, was ground to pieces under the wheels of a fast-flying trolley-car in the west of Philadelphia.

WEATHER FORECAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—For

Southern California: Fair, except cloudy and foggy along the coast; near stationary temperature; fresh to brisk westerly winds.

REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Acting Secretary Ade has received advices from

United States Consul-General Jernigan

at Shanghai, dated July 12, inclosing letters received by him from missionaries, giving in detail accounts of the events in China leading up to the riots against the missionaries at Chang-Tu, in the province of Sze-Chuen. One of those who were killed is the Rev. Spencer Lender, very comprehensive in scope, dated Chung-King,

China, says that the West China mission Methodists Episcopal Church is the only American mission represented at Cheng-Tu. The Americans there were

Rev. Otis Cadis and wife, H. L. Wright and wife and two children, and Rev.

W. F. Peet, wife and two children. This mission owned but one piece of property in Cheng-Tu, on which was a Chiinese building, fitted for the residence of two families, the Chinese building used as a chapel, a dispensary and minor structures. Lender says that substantially all these are gone. The total loss, exclusive of personal losses, is about 6000 taels.

The American Baptist Missionary

Union has stations at Sui-Fu, Kia-Ting and Yachan. The mission and personal property in Kia-Ting and Yachan is probably all lost, although particulars have not yet been received by Lender

as to what has been written. At Sui-Fu the Americans owned a great deal of property, but not much damage was done to it. Lender described the various attacks made on the stations at Cheng-Tu, the particulars of which have been made public in the American newspapers.

In the attack on the Canadian Methodist missions the two physicians in charge of the hospital, which was afterwards looted, kept the mob back, but the officials were given no assistance, although several of them were quite near. Late that evening

A SAVAGE BATTLE.

THE OUTCOME OF A FEUD IN WASHINGTON.

Six Men Are Injured and Two of Them Are Thought Likely to Die.

A Saloon Keeper and Followers Attack a Ferry Keeper and His Man.

The Two Were Shot and Benten and the Sheriff Also Receives Two Bullet Wounds in His Body.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT) SEATTLE, Aug. 9.—A long-standing feud at Samish, Skagit county, ended this morning in a savage battle, in which six men were injured, two of them perhaps fatally. The quarrel arose between Edward Baldwin, saloon-keeper who had recently started a ferry from Samish to Edson, and A. Wheeler, who occasionally worked for J. W. White, owner of the ferry which has been running for several years, each aided by his friends, and has been keeping the neighborhood in a turmoil for years.

Shortly after the steamer State of Washington went past Samish Landing this morning White was at work on the beach below the "bluff" on which his house is located, and Wheeler was on the front porch. Baldwin and his followers came up and began abusing Wheeler in a threatening manner. Wheeler called White, "The bald," and his followers left. About the time the State went past on its way south Wheeler and White started for the warehouse on the wharf, when Baldwin, Ozro Perkins, L. Toop and A. Warden appeared and followed. The approach to the warehouse is long and at the left is a stairway leading down to the small boats. White started down this stairway to his sloop and Wheeler continued on the wharf. Both men were shot and were stuck on the wharf with an iron bar. Warden and all fell unconscious. Wheeler's pursuers were driven off by Wharfinger Dean, but repeatedly renewed their attacks with the intention of finishing their victim, also threatening the wharfinger unless he desisted from interfering.

White was shot and kicked and beaten after falling, and it is due to Wharfinger Dean's firmness that he is now alive. Although the affray took place about 9 o'clock this morning neither the sheriff nor any of his deputies had appeared upon the scene up to 6 o'clock this evening. Wheeler and Baldwin are seriously wounded, Wheeler having three bullet-wounds and Baldwin two in his body. Sherif Perkins has two bullet wounds and White was stunned with a crowbar.

SUSPICIOUS VESSEL.

That Seen Off Yucatan May Not Have Been Dangerous.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT) CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 9.—Duke de Aros, the Spanish Minister, said today in an interview regarding the suspicious steamer which put in at Isla de Mujeres on the Yucatan coast that the Spanish Consul at Progreso advised him promptly of the arrival of the vessel at that port. The Minister says he does not believe, however, that the steamer James Woodall was the one which had armed men aboard. He thinks it was another steamer, Central American, which had been captured by the authorities of Yucatan.

The steamer, which had been captured by the authorities of Yucatan, was sent to the Cuban Islands. The authorities of Yucatan requested the Minister that lack of means they could not guard their coasts. Although there are Cuba clubs in the coast towns of Mexico, the Minister considers they would be of little use to the rebels, either in the way of money or recruits.

In the afternoon the steamer, Central American, was taken to the United States, the press and people who are alleged to be almost universally in sympathy with Cubans and giving open aid to the rebels, the Minister intimated that Spain would make explanations and would exhaust diplomatic resources before proceeding further, but would then act as circumstances should dictate. He would prefer to go to the last resort, be annexed to Mexico than become a part of the United States. He says that when the rainy season ends in Cuba, the Spanish government will make a supreme and irresistible endeavor to suppress the rebellion with 25,000 men and forty batteries of artillery.

CENSOR OF WAR NEWS.

HAVANA, Aug. 9.—Senor Pedro Mirallos has been appointed censor of war news.

OPOSED TO THE MORA CLAIM.

MADRID, Aug. 9.—At a meeting of the Carlist and Republican Deputies to-day the members present pledged the two parties to oppose the payment of the Mora claim. In addition, it was decided to send a petition to the Queen regent against the decision of the government to pay the claim, and if these steps were not successful in preventing payment, the Deputies decided to issue a manifesto to the nation.

A HOT DAY.

Several Prostrations From the Heat Are Reported from Chicago.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT) CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—This was one of the hottest days of the summer. The thermometer in the government observatory showed a maximum of 91 deg., but on the street level it was several degrees warmer than that. The victims of the heat were as follows:

WILLIAM MORROE, roofer, prostrated with heat while at work; died a few minutes later.

The other prostrations are: JOHN H. GAS, horse dealer; GEORGE HIGLEY, teamster; MICHAEL KANE, waiter; MARY NUTTY, waitress; MALCOLM LICK, waiter.

It is thought that all of them will recover.

AT OTHER POINTS.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—Specialists to the Republic from Marion and Peoria, Ill., state that this was one of the hottest days of the year. Two years ago the couple first met on the Pacific while en route to Samoa. Harbest, who is a pilot, got into a boat and allowed his sweet-heart to the next country, where she was governess in the family of the German Consul at Samoa. Harbest was soon compelled to return home, but before starting he got her promise to come on later and become his wife. She fulfilled her rather unique promise after traveling over five thousand miles alone.

AFFECTING MEETING.

Mrs. Gardiner and Her Husband Are Reunited.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT) CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Very affecting was the meeting in Chicago yesterday between Mrs. Annie M. Gardiner of Arcadia, Neb., and her husband. The woman has become known during the past month on account of her mysterious disappearance from the Christian Endeavor convention in Boston. She was found by J. W. Landers, a friend of the family, while she was serving as a domestic at Norwich, Conn.

Landers telephoned Mr. Gardner and the latter reached Chicago a short time before Mrs. Gardiner and Landers came from the East. After an affecting meeting the husband and wife went to the Palmer House, at which hotel they will stay while Mrs. Gardiner is undergoing treatment.

ANTI-LIQUOR PEOPLE.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE CATHOLICS.

A Bitter Attack Made on the Saloon Keepers and on the Manufacture of Beer at St. Vincent Abbey—A Colored Man Applauded.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT) NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—At the Catholic Total-abstinence Union convention today, Rev. P. O'Brien, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented a majority report. It was a bitter attack on the liquor-sellers, and those engaged in the business to give it up. It also advocated a strict Sunday social law. The resolution attacked the press, Archbishop Corrigan and Mgr. Satoll.

Father Seurikir of Buffalo presented a minority report. The main portion of his report was the same as the majority report, but he attacked St. Vincent Abbey and Catholics generally for making beer. "That's the doings behind the fence," he reported.

Rev. Father Ward moved that the majority report be received, and Father Seurikir's reference to St. Vincent be incorporated therein.

Father Seurikir said the people of America would respect the Catholics more if they took a bold stand on this question. Senator Magee of Minnesota, a colored man, was vociferously cheered.

"The darky," said he, "has been smoked out of the woodpile, and crossed the fence." It seemed to him this disgrace had been tolerated too long. In his State they were told: "You can drink St. Vincent beer; it's hot and won't do you harm." He urged the passage of the minority resolution.

Father Doyle, in reading the resolution, asked the delegates if they were willing to say that clergymen and religious men were managing and encouraging the liquor business. There was a prolonged silence.

"There," Father Doyle said, "you cannot pass that resolution."

Mrs. Lake said that such a resolution would not be accepted, as it would cause a misconception in the minds of many people. After further discussion the majority report was adopted.

St. Vincent was selected as the place and the first resolution adopted. Father Clary of Minneapolis was unanimously re-elected president and J. Washington Logue of Minneapolis was unanimously re-elected first vice-president.

JOLIET BLACKS.

They Adopt Resolutions Denouncing Spring Valley Outrages.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT)

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 9.—The colored citizens of Joliet held a mass-meeting last night to discuss the Spring Valley outrages. The Rev. Erocy of Rome, O., was the principal speaker. While the Constitution of the United States guarantees equal liberties and privileges to all, the black man, he said, had thus far never been able to receive the same privileges or the same protection as the white man.

The following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved. That the colored men of Joliet and vicinity do solemnly denounce the outrage perpetrated upon the fellow-members of their race at Spring Valley, and believe in so doing they voice the sentiments of all American citizens."

FISHERMEN ADRIFT.

Two Men Picked Up in an Exhausted Condition.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT)

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—The Dutch oil-tank steamer La Campane, which arrived today from Antwerp, picked up two French fishermen adrift in their dory on the banks on August 4. They were in an exhausted condition, having been adrift for forty-six hours without food and water. They gave their names as Aloisjean Murien and Celestine Dagon. They had left their vessel, the schooner Forvinche, at St. Pierre, Martinique, on Aug. 2 to attend to their trawls. A dense fog set in shortly afterward and they were unable to return to their vessel.

NEW YORK'S FINEST.

An Interesting Editorial Thereon in the Thunderer.

(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT)

LONDON, Aug. 9.—By Atlantic Cable. The Times this morning published an editorial on the split in the New York police force, in which it says:

"It is greatly to be feared that Col. Grant's action will stir all the old forces of corruption and misgovernment to renewed efforts. It is only too probable that the mischief done by his indiscretions cannot be repaired. To have all strain and serve at the autumn election and will perhaps succeed as it has succeeded after previous disasters. Its success would be a public calamity."

A Waiter's Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—Specialists to the Republic from Marion and Peoria, Ill., state that this was one of the hottest days of the year. The thermometer in the government observatory showed a maximum of 91 deg., but on the street level it was several degrees warmer than that. The victims of the heat were as follows:

HANGED UNTIL DEAD*MURDERER FREMONT SMITH IS NO MORE.*He Makes a Brief Speech on the Gallows and Claims to be Innocent.*The Force of the Fall Causes the Rope to Cut His Neck, Nearly Decapitating Him.*Church Member Confesses to Theft—Native Sons Are Stirred Up Over Love—Hesper Murders—A Juror's Explanation.*REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

SAN QUENTIN, Aug. 9.—Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning Fremont Smith, the murderer of his partners, two fishermen of Colusa, mounted the scaffold and prepared to meet the demands of the law. Warden Hale announced that the condemned man had a few words to say, and a hush fell upon the assemblage. With his arms and feet pinioned, Smith stood on the drop, and with a brave attempt at calmness, which was somewhat reversed by the pallor of his countenance and the trembling of his voice, said: "I have but a few words to say, but I am proud to state that I am an innocent man. I am as innocent as any man in the country, and have the proud distinction of being the first man in this State who was murdered in cold blood without a particle of evidence against me." Gov. Budd also has the proud distinction of being the first man while in office to sanction a murder as this hanging will be. That is all I have to say."

As soon as he had ceased speaking the black cap was tied over his face. That speech did not seem to suit Smith, for he said a few words, then distinctly said: "Be sure and tie it tight." Hardly were the words out of his mouth when the drop was sprung. As the rope tightened a half-stifled groan escaped from his lips, and at the same instant a stream of blood poured over his person.

Smith is a heavy man, weighing 220 pounds, and the force of the fall caused the rope to cut so deeply into the flesh of his neck that his head was nearly taken off. The cut extended from ear to ear, and the knot penetrated fully above the joint of the lower jaw at the assimilation with the upper maxillary. His neck was undoubtedly instantly broken, and in six minutes the body was cut down and placed in the coffin.

LOVE'S MISDOINGS.Native Sons Stirred Up Over Those Missing Relics.(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—The dispatch from Chicago yesterday announcing that James H. Love disappeared, and with him most of the relics of the '48 camp, has stirred up the Native Sons, especially those about Sacramento, where most of the relics belonged. The relics in question were a leading attraction of the '48 camp when that concern was a part of the Midwinter Fair. At that time Love was one of the prime movers in the fair. Afterward he, Eugene Hahn and several others took the camp to Chicago with a view to later on moving it to the Atlanta exposition.

When Sutter's fort was restored by the Native Sons of California a number of pioneers left the fort to collect relics of the early days, with which to furnish it. A very valuable collection was soon made, and it kept growing till the Midwinter Fair started. Then Love prevailed on the managers of the fort to let him take the relics of the fair and exhibit them in the '48 camp.

It was expected that the relics would be replaced in Sutter's fort right after the Midwinter Fair, but they moved in a circle that somehow jumped Sacramento, and the first definite news of the proper custodians gained of the whereabouts of the exhibit was when the relics of the fair were being placed on exhibition at Chicago.

Frank D. Ryan, one of the trustees of Sutter's fort, says that Love has a $1000 bond up for the safe return of the relics.

WILL GO TO JAIL.A Church Member Confesses to Stealing in a Drugstore.(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

OAKLAND, Aug. 9.—Emma de Lucy, member of the Fruitvale Presbyterian Church, was sentenced by Judge Frick yesterday to serve a term of eighteen months at San Quentin. The prisoner admitted the charges against her, offering testimony in extenuation, but at the same time asking to be sent to prison, refusing to allow counsel to defend her.

The woman made a good appearance and spoke very intelligently. Not long ago she entered Hyde's drugstore on Washington street, intending to buy a brush, she said. An uncontrollable impulse to steal something suddenly possessed her, and she hurriedly secreted in her reticule two boxes of a combination outfit, consisting of several boxes of snuff and other articles. For all of these things she had no use, nor did she make any effort to sell. Apparently rational on other things, she stated that she is afraid to go out alone for fear that she will steal something. In Fruitvale she is generally respected, though she has served for terms in the House of Correction at San Francisco. Her fatal mania is a great grief to her, she says, and when arrested she has always given an alias. She is 40 years of age.

IN A BAD CONDITION.Interesting Testimony Concerning the Bank of Merced.(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

MERCED, Aug. 9.—The suit to oust Supervisor C. C. Nelson from office progresses slowly. There having been $200,000 of the county money in the Merced Bank when the bank suspended, the prosecution is now trying to show that the bank was insolvent for a long time prior to its suspension, and that Nelson, being a director, knew the condition of the bank and yet allowed the county money to remain on deposit.

In proving the condition of the bank the prosecution has had Cashier John Hansen stand and made him produce all the books and documents as they stood at the time of suspension were read, and all the securities are being overhauled. The testimony has shown that all the directors except John R. Rice, president, and C. C. Nelson were born outside of the bank.

Cashier Howell today testified that after the bank suspended the directors held a meeting, Nelson being present, at which every director expressed the opinion that the bank was solvent. The witness had never presented a statement or report of the assets of the bank to the directors. Nelson had never performed any duties whatever; loans by the bank were made by the managing president and vice-president.

and Nelson was not consulted concerning the loans.

F. McSwain, attorney for the defendant, was called as witness this afternoon. He owed the bank several thousand dollars and was asked what property he had. This line of evidence was intended to show that many of the assets of the bank were not good, McSwain refused to answer, and the court said that he was liable on an account of the attorney for the prosecution desired. The question was then withdrawn until tomorrow morning, when it is expected that McSwain will go to jail for contempt rather than answer. The evidence thus far shows that Mr. Budd is having a very bad complexion, but nothing has yet been adduced to show that Nelson knew of its condition. The testimony today showed Nelson had $225 on deposit in the bank when it closed.

TWELVE JURORS ENOUGH.Fourteen Will Not be Drawn in the Dearth Case.(REGULAR ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—The District Attorney has decided to try Theodore Durrant for murder with twelve jurors instead of securing fourteen as at first contemplated. The managing and editing of the Chronicle and Examiner were in court this morning to plead to charges of contempt of court in publishing interviews with sworn jurors in the case. They were honored in their presence, however, and proceeded with the examination of the jurors.

After the panel had been exhausted without securing additional jurors, District Attorney Barnes asked permission to ask Juror Brown certain questions touching his qualification to serve as a juror. Barnes was granted, although counsel objected to the question asked. The court's ruling was uniformly with the prosecution.

In reply to questions, Brown stated that he had been a juror in the trial of M. D. Howell, the counterfeiter, which trial was held in the U. S. District Court. The jury stood seven to five for conviction at the first ballot and the verdict was not changed, although the jury was out nine days. Brown stated that he was before the Federal grand jury, who was investigating the charges of bribery in the case. He had been asked by the grand jury if he knew anything of bribery, but said he did not.

Then Juror Brown was permitted to make his desired statement regarding the Howell case. He said that he had been at his house to ask if he had anything to say concerning the Howell case. He had related the circumstances of the balloting for the Howell verdict, but had not been asked nor had he been asked anything about the Durrant case. Brown said that the alleged interview with him published in the papers in which he discussed the Durrant case were wholly untrue. The Durrant case, he said, had not been mentioned by him or by reporter.

The District Attorney asked permission to pose a peremptory challenge on Juror Brown, remarking that had he known the facts now developed when Brown was examined as a venireman, he never would have accepted him as a juror. The court took the motion under advisement. Mr. Barnes asked the jury to stand seven to five for conviction at the first ballot and the verdict was not changed, although the jury was out nine days. Brown stated that he was before the Federal grand jury, who was investigating the charges of bribery in the case. ## AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

LOS ANGELES—The Wife, ORPHEUM—Vaudeville, BURBANK—The Shadows of a Great City.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Do not depend upon the return of rejected manuscripts, but retain copies if you wish to preserve your contributions. Articles should be typewritten and MSS. sent flat. Practice brevity and write plainly.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

City subscribers to The Times visiting the country or seaside resorts during the summer can have the daily mailed to them, for a week or longer, by ordering and preparing for the same at the publication office, or they can have it delivered in any of the seaside towns by ordering from the local agent, and paying in advance.

THE WRIGHT LAW.—Extra copies of The Times, containing the full text of the recent decision of United States Judge Ross as to the legality of the Wright irrigation law may be had at the Times counting-room for 5 cents per copy, or they will be mailed to any address for the same price.

MIDSUMMER NUMBER OF THE TIMES.

On the 15th of August The Times will issue a unique special Midsummer Number, describing Los Angeles and Southern California in the season of utmost warmth, and under the highest conditions of vegetable growth and fruit production.

It will be a number redolent of summer and breathing of the fruits, flowers and grains that grow in our prolific soil.

This issue will differ in essential particulars from any before issued by The Times. The peculiar charms of the country—charms which never fade, but grow brighter with the passing years—will be set forth with fidelity; and our aim will be to make the number as valuable in its contents as it will be attractive in letter-press and illustrations.

It will be a triple sheet of 36 pages, and in its contents will be embraced adequate and accurate descriptions of the towns and cities of the south, with records of progress in each.

The seaside and mountain resorts will receive particular attention, with the especial object of showing strangers what summer life in Southern California actually is.

"The Summer Sea," "Camping and Trout-fishing," "Hunting and Deep-sea Fishing," "The Horas in Southern California," and numbers of other timely topics will be graphically, pleasantly and accurately treated by skilled writers and experts.

City, village, suburban and country homes will be truly pictured and described for the benefit of distant readers and intending residents.

"How Things Grow" is a subject which will be fully treated and re-lately portrayed.

A volume of up-to-date information about the country will be given, and many new topics will be exploited, and old ones newly treated.

The commercial, business and building progress of the city and country will be shown.

There will be a special and elaborate account of the important oil development in this city, with a trustworthy description of the numerous openings for the application of enterprise and the investment of capital.

Other interesting features of the southern country will be presented in the Midsummer Number. We guarantee a fine issue, a numerous edition, and one of the best of the many creditable papers for which the Times office is notable.

A more specific and detailed list of contents will be found in another part of this issue.

The Chicago Tribune declares, with evident regret, that "not one of the skeletons lately found in the Holmes 'castle' has been enumerated in the last Chicago directory." This statement would require further verification were it not for the fact that the location of the skeletons was not known at the time the latest Chicago directory was compiled. But there were others.

Dr. Furdall, the eminent scholar, declares that the correct Elizabethan pronunciation of Shakespeare's name was "Shakspear." This pronunciation may have been all right in the days of William's day, but it doesn't go foreign wage-earners at the expense of American wage-earners.

A medal has just been awarded to John S. Kountz, drummer of an Ohio regiment, for distinguished gallantry at the battle of Missionary Ridge on November 25, 1863. Mr. Kountz, then a boy of 18, threw away his drum, seized a musket and joined in the charge. The fact that his bravery has been rewarded with a medal is no doubt very gratifying to Mr. Kountz, though it must be confessed that the reward has been a long time coming, while from a youth of 18 he has changed to a graybeard of 52 years. It is said that "all things come to him who waits," but it isn't everybody that gets a gold medal after waiting thirty-two years.

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch rises to express the honest conviction that Grover Cleveland would decline a third term "with the shrinking modesty with which a bull-pup would decline a saucer of new milk." Undoubtedly.

A careful estimate shows that since Cleveland was inaugurated the second term the wool-clip of the United States has fallen off 100,000,000 pounds. Democratic free trade in wool is more fatal to American sheep than the hoof disease.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

New Zenda Stories by Anthony Hope, Author of "The Prisoner of Zenda," Etc. (Illustrated).

Mr. S. S. McClure, editor of McClure's Magazine, New York, writes The Times as follows:

I have a splendid series of short, dramatic stories by Anthony Hope, to begin publication August 11, and run at intervals through August, September and October. There are six stories in all. These stories are tales of the Princess of Zenda, and the general title is "The Heart of the Princess Osra." Each story is complete in itself, though Princess Osra is the heroine of them all.

"The Prisoner of Zenda" is the most popular and successful romance of the past five years. I doubt if anything of this kind has been so much read and talked about since Stevenson's "Treasure Island."

The scenes of these new stories are laid in Streisau, in the forest and castle of Zenda, familiar to readers of Hope's famous book; the time is a century or more ago and the tales deal with men of chivalrous character, beautiful women, strange adventures and strategies and love-making. I have not read anything for a long time so absorbing and enthralling as these romances. Here is a list of the stories and dates of their publication:

August 11, "The Wager of the Marquis de Mesorables."

August 18, "The Madness of Lord Harry Culverhouse."

September 15, "The Device of the Painter."

September 22, "The Indifference of the Miller of Hofbau."

October 6, "The Love of the Prince of Glottenburg."

October 13, "The Victory of the Grand Duke of Mittenheim."

These stories will appear in The Times on the dates named above.

MUSTERED IN.

Los Angeles Can Now boast of a Cavalry Troop.

Los Angeles has a cavalry troop; but for two hours last evening the prospect of getting one looked very gloomy.

Troop D of the First Brigade of the National Guard of California was to have been formally attached to the State militia at 8 o'clock last evening. The mustering-in officer, was in his place ready for the arduous duties before him. But there were only thirty-five names on the rolls and not until fifty signed could Los Angeles have their cavalry troop. Then the men who had first proposed the thing went forth into the streets and units of Athletic Club and members in recruits by dozens and threes and even in blocks of five and nine on the lists.

Then Maj. Owens smiled with joy. He called the roll, and behold just twelve of the new recruits had disappeared. But the rustlers went to work again and got the remaining members, and the trooper was sworn in.

Then everybody felt happy. Forthwith the troop elected its officers. J. B. Lankersham is captain; W. R. Teale is senior and George Reed junior first lieutenant; and D. H. Burks is second lieutenant.

Adt. Gen. A. W. Barrett, ex-Adt. Gen. Allen, Col. Schreiber and C. F. A. Last all spoke briefly and to the point, and then the troop gathered to meet again next Friday evening.

The members of the new organization are as follows: Messrs. J. T. Thompson, Dr. E. J. Hadfield, George Reed, Jr., W. A. Smith, P. L. Johnson, C. F. Raasch, D. H. Burks, E. R. McDonald, George J. ## ALL ALONG THE LINE.

There are said to be one hundred people in Redlands who own and ride bicycles. Of this number about fifteen are women and girls, and of the weaker sex it is claimed that ten wear bloomers.

The regular murder occurred yesterday in due course, and the hopper grows fuller of crime for the fall grinding. If the epidemic continues, the summer vacation of the legal lights will have to be shortened.

Red and brown are the prevailing colors in complexions just now, and the streets begin to be dotted with happy, satisfied-looking mortals who bear the unmistakable brand of a late close acquaintance with the wind and the sea, and an air of gentle triumph, suggesting many of pectoral and other conquests.

A significant sign of the revival of prosperity in Southern California is the improvement in the real estate market at San Diego. There is reported to be an increased demand there for city and country property. The maturity of thousands of the two million fruit trees planted in that county is one of the reasons for the better conditions at the southward.

According to the report of the Oil Exchange committee there is promise of a golden future for Los Angeles oilmen, and prospects of solid wealth beneath the derrick-crowned hills. The well-directed efforts of the Oil Exchange to establish the industry upon a permanent footing deserve a full measure of success and profit.

The success attending the efforts of a gentleman now in our midst, who subdues with ease and grace the bucking broncho, gives rise to hope that genius will yet invent a cheap and simple method of exterminating the two-legged kicker, who anon frequents the highways, byways and precincts of the city. Here's hoping that the day will soon arrive when kickers shall be banished.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Sudden Death of Paul J. Rivers of Bremham, Tex.

Paul J. Rivers, late of Bremham, Tex., was found dead in his room at No. 74½ South Spring street, yesterday afternoon. The death appeared to be from natural causes.

He, in company with his mother and sister, came to the house in question two or three months ago. It was understood that they were here for their health. Three or four days ago his mother, Mrs. R. B. Rivers, went to Catalina, and yesterday morning his sister also went to the island.

Rivers was last seen alive Thursday night, and since that time yesterday morning she made some search as to wondering why he should not be up at that time, but little was thought of it.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon it was suspected that something was wrong, and an entrance was effected. Rivers was found in bed as he had retired, as usual the night before. He was still breathing, but his heart and his head was pressed close to the bowl.

His watch was still running, and some peeling of fruit, which he had evidently eaten before retiring were found. There was no note or poison or other evidence that he had committed suicide.

The body was removed to Kregel & French's embalming room, and an inquest will probably be held today. The relatives of the deceased were notified. He was about 25 years of age.

THE TYPERS.

A Trip to Pasadena—A Banquet Last Evening.

California State Typographical Union No. 6, is continuing its festivities. At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delegates boarded a special car and took the journey to Pasadena and back. The car was a mass of flowers and flags and palm branches, and as it sped along its way the inhabitants of the peaceful regions on the route gazed in wonder and amaze and asked each other what was going on. Superintendent W. D. Larrabee of the Pasadena and Pacific Electric Railway, went along to point out the things which the traveler ought always to see.

At 10 o'clock last evening there was a grand dinner at the Hotel New York, when some sixty people sat down to the delicious repast. The menu was the following programme of toasts, over which presided Cyren E. Flak: "State Union No. 6"; E. I. Woodman; "International Typographical Union"; J. L. Robnett; "Typographical Union No. 174"; Capt. J. E. Colver; "Los Angeles County Council of Labor"; L. C. Eddie; "Delegates of a Tentfoot Journalist"; George Purcell; "Benefits of Organised Labor"; J. F. Caree; "Justice to Labor"; William F. Burbank; "Relation of the State to Labor"; William Fitzgerald; "The Printing Trade"; E. G. Carley; "Conditions of the Country Unorganized with Organised Labor"; A. J. Read; "The Country Winter"; Seipio Craig.

COOL! COOL! COOL!

AVALON (Catalina Island,) Aug. 9.—(By Homing-pigeon Arizona of the Catalina Carrier-pigeon Service to The Times.) The merriest crowd of campers on the island are located down at White's Landing, about four miles below Avalon. The entire company numbers sixty, and is made up of professional men, teachers, doctors, lawyers and ministers, with their wives, sisters and sweethearts, from Los Angeles, Downey, Pasadena and Monrovia. There is a perfect colony of tents pitched under the wide-spreading cottonwood trees, just back from the broad sweep of sandy beach, which makes this spot an ideal one for camping. Prof. W. B. French of Downey is the manager of the camp, and has things arranged in the most comfortable style. Competent cooks cater to the large and well-developed appetites of the campers, who dine in a big tent specially arranged for that purpose, and a camp store is open all day. Front of the dining tent is a large awning spread, where after dinner, camp chairs are spread and the jolly idlers swap fish stories, sing college songs, read and retail the latest camp gossip.

A SWARM OF METEORS.

"About This Time Look for" Their Occurrence.
(From an Occasional Contributor to The Times.)

The earth is about to plunge into a swarm of meteors. In a swarm of meteors, individuals are not so close together as in a swarm of bees. Indeed if the meteors were within ten miles of each other they would be so thick that we could not count them, for the earth moves in its orbit at the rate of eighteen miles per second, and the meteors at the rate of forty miles per second, so that the earth overtakes the meteors in the vision between the ticks of a clock. It is highly probable that in the swarm we are now entering the individuals are from 10 to 1000 miles apart—not very close neighbors, terrestrially speaking, but very closely interlocked. When we look into consideration the magnitude of their orbit and the vastness of space, for these meteors are moving in a great elliptical orbit around the sun, and the earth in its annual journey crosses that orbit about the 10th of August every year. This August showed or rather sprinkled a few meteors have been noted for about sixty years, and it was observed that they proceed from a point in the northern heavens, called the radiant, which is located in the constellation Perseus, hence they are called Perseids.

In July, 1862, Prof. Swift, now of the Lowell Observatory, and three days later, Mr. Tuttle in Europe, discovered a bright comet known as Comet III, whose orbit was computed, and it was found to be identical with the path pursued by the August meteors. In 1866 another comet was observed by Prof. Swift, and its orbit corresponded with that of the November meteors, which proceeded from the constellation Leo, and are called Leonids.

The inference was drawn that these meteor swarms were from the particles of disintegrating comets. In the present case, however, the comet's path of a comet whose loosely-assorted particles have been disintegrating or spilling along its path for many centuries. The comet which blazed forth in 1862 is simply the densest portion of the swarm, when the particles were compact enough to become visible at a distance.

The orbit of Swift's comet (1862) is one of the most extensive of all the meteor swarms yet observed. When nearest the sun it was between Venus and Earth and moved with enormous velocity. It then receded into space pursuing a journey that will take nearly a thousand million miles beyond the orbit of the outer planet Neptune, and it will be 123 years before it again revisits the earth. While the August meteors, or Perseids, are mostly observed on the 9th, 10th and 11th of August, they are also occasionally observed previous and subsequent to those dates. The writer observed a very brilliant one on the evening of August 7, while sitting on the veranda of the Echo Mountain Lodge, a mile south of the town of Julian. The meteor was the mascot, landing a 145-pound Jewish.

Three small boys, sons of L. M. and E. G. Leonard of Los Angeles, caught two large yellowtails and forty mackerel Thursday morning.

William E. Best of Chicago, Miss Jennie A. Wilshire of San Francisco, Edward L. Lester of San Leandro went out fishing yesterday, and one of the party caught a yellowtail.

William B. Wilshire of San Francisco, M. B. Jacobs of Tucson and G. C. Bartell of Chicago were a trio of anglers yesterday who caught nine yellowtails, weighing 145 pounds, two bass, weighing twelve pounds, and three bonitos weighing ten pounds. Mr. Wilshire was the mascot, landing a 145-pound Jewish.

Harry Simpson, who is the guest of George Tuttle at the Owl's Nest, went out one afternoon with his host fishing, and the two caught forty-nine mackerel.

The La Paloma went round the island with forty-five passengers to-day. The San Diego also made the trip with a large company on board.

AN INTERESTING PROCESSION.

Each day at 10 a.m. and again at 3 p.m. the hotel guests, and in fact, all who reside on the boulevard facing the ocean, are treated to an exhibition which puts the Midway Pleasureland entirely in the shade. It is a procession of human stock, who ambulate between their several places of residence and the bath-house, clad in their thoughts and their bathing suits. It does not seem to occur to these very well-meaning people that the bath houses are provided for the purpose of providing accommodations to make the rapid transit from clothing to bathing suits and vice versa. Some doubtless over-squeamish people get dreadfully shocked to behold the Adonis of the ball the previous evening stalking along the main avenue in his numerous parts of his form being a pair of very long legs) walking right and left to his acquaintances in the most blissfully-unconscious manner imaginable, apparently entirely unaware of the fact that he is deshabille.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE

BATTLE OVER STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISE.

Opposing Factions War Before the Board of Public Works—The Result Reached.

The Nervy Effort of an Advertising Agent—His Scheme Propounded Before the Board.

Informations Filed Against Burness, Coyne and Reddick—A Convert Sister Tired of Life—Whitehead's Case Dismissed.

The Board of Public Works yesterday listened to a large number of citizens who favor, and an equally large number who oppose, the granting of an electric street-railway franchise on West Eighth street. No definite decision was arrived at, the matter being taken under advisement by the board. The advertising agent with the street-sign proposition, who has been previously mentioned and his scheme described, appeared before the board, advocating the adoption of his scheme, but his proposition was also taken under advisement by the board.

At the Courthouse yesterday the chief officials in evidence were the janitors. All departments of the Superior Court were closed, and business was dull in most of the offices.

AT THE CITY HALL.

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

Fierce Fighting for an Electric Railway Franchise.

The Board of Public Works was obliged yesterday to adjourn its place of meeting from the regular committee room to the Council chamber. Over one hundred citizens were present when the board was called to order, and as the committee room is comfortably full when a score of men are in it, the adjournment to the Council chamber became a necessity. The cause of this influx of visitors was found in the fact that the question of granting a franchise for an electric railway on West Eighth street was to be acted upon by the board, and the parties for and against the granting of the franchise were present in full force.

Permission was granted the faction favoring the railway to first address the board upon the subject. H. E. Storrs opened the debate, pronouncing the franchise to the property-owners which will result if the road is operated on Eighth street. He warned the board not to be deluded into fancying that because the Consolidated Company is placing a few rails on Ninth street, therefore the road on that street is to be immediately electrified. Alfred Wallace, Captain Garfield, Wells Johnson, and de Laguna also spoke, advocating the granting of the franchise. The arguments made were mainly to the effect that the value of property would be enhanced by the building of the road on the street desired, superior transit facilities would be afforded, and the establishment of a competing line in the territory would be a stimulus to the entire section.

The parties opposing the granting of the franchise were allowed opportunity to speak and did so with great force and fluency. Attorney W. B. Burnett inveigled the members of the board to accept a franchise of a lot of real estate boomers and lobbyists to secure a franchise which, if granted, would practically ruin the street for purposes of traffic. Mr. Burnett produced the following letter from F. W. Wood of the Consolidated Electric Railway Company, which was written by Mr. Wood in answer to questions as to the disposal to be made of the Ninth-street road by his company:

"Replies to your letter of the 3rd inst., relative to the intention of this company with reference to the Ninth-street car line, I have to say that it is the intention to reconstruct this line as an elevated streetcar line, and to extend our general system, as soon as material and equipment can be provided. This will doubtless all be completed within the next two or three months; probably much sooner."

Mr. Dandy, a retired minister living on Eighth street, was invited by Congressman Ringier to speak upon the subject, and he said that the petition of the rail-road which the promoters of the railway had circulated was a very misleading paper, as scores of signers to the same have expressed themselves to him as being very sorry that their names were affixed to the petition. He also referred to the extreme narrowness of the street and declared that to place the double tracks upon a forty-foot street means nothing less than the practical confiscation of the same to railway purposes.

Messrs. Denio, Sanders, Quinton and Wilson also addressed the board, opposing the granting of the franchise. Mr. Hook, the millionaire capitalist who is behind the enterprise, sat in an armchair and listened to the discussion during the course of the discussion, but from the expression of his face none could have guessed that the settlement of the question affected him in the least.

After the board had listened without intermission for three hours to the arguments of the parties interested, the matter was taken under advisement, as various members of the board stated their wish to examine into the question more at length.

THOSE LITTLE STREET SIGNS.

The man who presented a communication to the Council on Monday with reference to the furnishing of street signs to the city gratis, in return for the privilege of placing advertising matter upon the same, appeared before the board to urge the adoption of his proposition. He presented samples of the sign he wishes to use and declared that the merchants of the city are almost universally in favor of his scheme, as it will be a pleasure in finding their way to the great dry goods, hardware and grocery emporiums of the city. "But," said Chairman Munson to Mr. Fawkes, the advertising agent, "the press seems to be opposed to the thing, and we don't care to fight that institution at least I don't," added the captain. "Completely." Yes, replied Mr. Fawkes bitterly. "The press opposes the scheme because of the fear that a few dollars' worth of advertising patronage will be lost to the paper. That's the animus of that opposition, and that's why I am spoken of as an agent with gall."

Upon the statement of Councilman Kinniry that another street-sign proposition is in the hands of the City Clerk, it was decided to postpone action on the matter until both propositions came regularly before the board. The second proposition referred to is from another Mr. Fawkes and reads as follows:

"To the honorable City Council and Board of Public Works: I, J. W. Fawkes, Jr., a resident and property-holder in both city and county of Los Angeles, do herewith make the following proposition:

"I will furnish the city of Los Angeles with street signs, as per accompanying diagrams, either of the four designs that you may decide upon, under the following terms and conditions: A proposal to furnish free two street signs, or posts, to block on the main street, and in the central part

THE COURTS.

The Charge Against Whitehead Dismissed for Lack of Evidence.

Maurice Whitehead, aged 19, was tried yesterday before Justice Withersell of Redondo on the charge of seducing under promise of marriage Dora Pfennig, a girl of 18, the daughter of Franklin E. Pfennig of Los Angeles.

The girl has been acquainted with Whitehead ever since February, 1894, having met him while she was working in the family of R. H. Thompson, vice-president of the Redondo Company.

It was the old story of romance, she a girl ruled and cast aside, with her to live the rest of her life as best she may. Her evidence showed no actual definite promise of marriage from Whitehead. She asked him what would become of her if she got into trouble, as she would be afraid to go home, and he soothed her with vague promises that it would be "all right" and that he would provide a home for her.

Whitehead then went to Oregon, leaving the girl to face her trouble alone. She wrote to him again and again, but obtained no satisfaction, and when it became evident that he intended to abandon her, she brought this suit.

Deputy District Attorney W. T. Williams conducted the prosecution, J. Marion Brooks appearing for the defense. The case was clear enough against Whitehead, but as he was able to prove that there had been no definite promise of marriage, the court dismissed the case.

That communication No. 822 from Schae Bros. was filed as permission was already been granted to do the work.

That communication from S. A. Matison was filed.

That petition from D. H. Bair et al., asking permission to grade Bush street between Cassiar and Ord streets, be graded, gravelled and curbed with redwood curb, be granted and the City Engineer instructed to prepare and present the necessary ordinance of intention for doing said work according to specifications G.

That petition from C. P. Folkert et al., asking that Georgia Bell street, between the north curb line of Pico street and a point 120 feet south of the south curb line of Eleventh street, be graded and gravelled, curbed with cement curb and sidewalk, be graded and paved with wide, be granted and the City Engineer instructed to prepare and present the necessary ordinance of intention for doing said work according to specifications G.

That petition from C. B. Dickson et al., asking permission to grade Bush street between Bush and Hill of Washington street and Hill of Harrison, by private contract, be granted and the City Attorney instructed to prepare and present the necessary ordinance of intention for doing said work according to specifications G.

That petition from C. P. Folkert et al., asking permission to grade Bush street between Bush and Hill of Washington street and Hill of Harrison, by private contract, be granted and the City Attorney instructed to prepare and present the necessary ordinance of intention for doing said work according to specifications G.

That ordinance of intention to change and establish the grade of Whittier street from Seventh to Eighth street, was to be acted upon by the board, and the parties for and against the granting of the franchise were present in full force.

Permission was granted the faction favoring the railway to first address the board upon the subject. H. E. Storrs opened the debate, pronouncing the franchise to the property-owners which will result if the road is operated on Eighth street. He warned the board not to be deluded into fancying that because the Consolidated Company is placing a few rails on Ninth street, therefore the road on that street is to be immediately electrified. Alfred Wallace, Captain Garfield, Wells Johnson, and de Laguna also spoke, advocating the granting of the franchise. The arguments made were mainly to the effect that the value of property would be enhanced by the building of the road on the street desired, superior transit facilities would be afforded, and the establishment of a competing line in the territory would be a stimulus to the entire section.

The parties opposing the granting of the franchise were allowed opportunity to speak and did so with great force and fluency. Attorney W. B. Burnett inveigled the members of the board to accept a franchise of a lot of real estate boomers and lobbyists to secure a franchise which, if granted, would practically ruin the street for purposes of traffic. Mr. Burnett produced the following letter from F. W. Wood of the Consolidated Electric Railway Company, which was written by Mr. Wood in answer to questions as to the disposal to be made of the Ninth-street road by his company:

"Replies to your letter of the 3rd inst., relative to the intention of this company with reference to the Ninth-street car line, I have to say that it is the intention to reconstruct this line as an elevated streetcar line, and to extend our general system, as soon as material and equipment can be provided. This will doubtless all be completed within the next two or three months; probably much sooner."

Mr. Dandy, a retired minister living on Eighth street, was invited by Congressman Ringier to speak upon the subject, and he said that the petition of the rail-road which the promoters of the railway had circulated was a very misleading paper, as scores of signers to the same have expressed themselves to him as being very sorry that their names were affixed to the petition. He also referred to the extreme narrowness of the street and declared that to place the double tracks upon a forty-foot street means nothing less than the practical confiscation of the same to railway purposes.

Messrs. Denio, Sanders, Quinton and Wilson also addressed the board, opposing the granting of the franchise. Mr. Hook, the millionaire capitalist who is behind the enterprise, sat in an armchair and listened to the discussion during the course of the discussion, but from the expression of his face none could have guessed that the settlement of the question affected him in the least.

After the board had listened without intermission for three hours to the arguments of the parties interested, the matter was taken under advisement, as various members of the board stated their wish to examine into the question more at length.

City Hall Notes.

The committee to examine bids upon school furniture to be purchased by the Board of Education during the coming year will meet this morning and complete its report on the 1st.

Superintendent of Parks Messer has been occupied the major portion of the week with the work of removing the large date palms recently donated by a property-owner at Third and San Pedro streets to the park department of the city. The task is a difficult one, as some of the trees weigh from fifteen to twenty tons apiece, and their removal will be accomplished by means of a derrick.

Director Grubb of the Board of Education has prepared figures which he proposed to submit to the Council, the amount to be expended in school room accommodations, and the seventh is greater than in any other ward in the city. Mr. Grubb is fearful that reductions in the size of the school buildings will be made by the Council, and will cite his figures as an argument against any reduction of school facilities in the ward represented by him.

New Suits.

Allen H. Graves has filed a suit against Reuben M. Baker to quiet title to certain land on Broadway and Third streets in this city.

William Le Moyne Wills has filed a suit against Henry Krein to enforce the construction of a party wall, and for $100 damages.

Marianna Schidinger has filed an application for divorce from her husband, Nicola Schidinger, on the ground of extreme cruelty.

Court Notes.

Harry Deacon of Vernon was arrested yesterday for using dire personal violence toward one Gilbert Williams.

Marianna Schidinger of Monte Vista yesterday procured the arrest of her husband, Nicola Schidinger, for violent abuse and ill-treatment.

TO POMONA BY WHEEL

THE BICYCLE ROAD ASSOCIATION OF LOS ANGELES.

A New National Racing Team Composed Entirely of Californians—McCrea, and Lacy in It—Union Run to Pomona—Other News.

The main road from Los Angeles to Pomona is not as good at this time of the year as it is in the spring and fall but yet compares favorably with roads in the East.

Starting from this city the Mission road or North Main is taken out to East Lake Park. From the east-side park the route runs parallel with the railroad to beyond the powder houses then on past Shorb station the road gets away from the railroad. But all the way to Pomona the railroad in near by except when passing through the Puente hills. Some sandy bits of road are encountered this side of Puente and probably most riders will walk some of the worst strips.

There is little danger of getting off the roads as there is leveled ground. There is a road turning to the left that may fool some as it is more of a fork than a cross road. The right-hand road is the proper one to follow.

If the rider wishes he can take the Mission road to San Gabriel and keep ahead to Savannah Park where the well-known San Francisco wheelmen have been in this city this week. Both well known all over the country.

"Dobie" of Chicago, another wheelman with a national reputation came with them. Joyce and Lennie will remain several days.

Messrs. Will W. Sale and M. L. Reynolds, San Francisco wheelmen, passed through this city this week en route to San Diego.

Mr. Dobie, Jr., who was the wheelman and jumper of the California Athletic Association, leaves Sunday for Berkeley. C. C. Hopkins of San Francisco will go North at the same time.

A Confidence Man Arrested.

A man who gave his name as William H. Ralston was arrested by Officer Reynolds on Main street yesterday afternoon for begging. Ralston is about 25 years of age and from his actions it appears he is a confidence man. He told a number of people, one at a time as he had opportunity, that if they would come up to his room he would give them a "sure thing." He would in nearly every case ask for money to help further the scheme.

Probably Stolen Property.

Some property which appears to have been stolen has been found among the effects of the Cummings brothers at Riverside, who have been arrested for the murder of T. G. Neumann of this city. A box of carpenter's tools which was found in their possession corresponds with a box of tools which was stolen in this city a number of months ago. A shotgun was also found which it is suspected was stolen.

A FATAL CUTTING AFFRAY IN THE CASTAIC CANYON.

Juan Quen on Being Struck on the Head by Liborio Aceda Killed the latter by a Single Blow with a Knife—The Murderer is Now in Jail.

Juan Quen, charged with the murder of Liborio Aceda in Castaic Canyon Thursday evening, was brought to the County Jail yesterday. As the facts which have thus far been developed appear to be in his favor it is thought probably he will not go to the gallows.

The first information of the tragedy was received in this city yesterday morning in the form of a dispatch to Coroner Campbell from Constable Farde of Newhall, stating the fact that Aceda had been killed. The Coroner left for the scene of the tragedy on 2 p.m. train, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Aguirre. They had a long distance to drive after leaving the train at Saugus and were not expected to reach their destination till last night.

The news of the killing was telephoned to San Fernando yesterday morning together with a description of Quen. Deputy Sheriff Peter Lopez on receipt of the news, swore out a complaint and obtained a warrant for Quen's arrest. Quen was seen not long afterward riding into town and was placed under arrest. Deputy Sheriff Lopez brought the prisoner to this city on the morning of Friday, arriving here shortly before 2 p.m. and at once took him to the County Jail.

Only Quen's version of the affair could be obtained, but he did not seem disposed to unduly shield himself.

He stated through an interpreter that on Thursday night he was cooking supper for a man in Castaic Canyon not far from the Jenkins ranch. While he was thus engaged Aceda came up and asked that he take him (Aceda) home. Quen consented to do so, and both of them mounted Quen's horse, Aceda riding behind.

While on the way to Aceda's home a small arrow struck Aceda, who had been drinking, struck Quen on the head with a quirt which was loaded with lead like a slingshot.

In the course of the quarrel which ensued, Aceda drew Quen from his horse and in self-defense struck him once with a knife.

Quen struck him once with a knife.

Quen, without looking to see what were the consequences of the fatal thrust, rode away. He waited till noon, and after consulting with some of his friends decided to place himself in the hands of the authorities. Accordingly, he started to ride to San Fernando, having passed the place where he had struck down Aceda. The man was lying where he left him, but Quen rode rapidly past without examining closely as to Aceda's condition.

At San Fernando he gave himself up to Deputy Sheriff Lopez. He admitted that he took two drinks of wine not long before he struck Aceda.

There's no help for the mosquito, and prices look very cheap. When he strikes his customers strike bargains. He al-biggest values, and if you can use anything in the line of hats or furnishings, there's big money in yielding to the seductive persuasiveness of his prices.

Some of our readers are induced to Desmond's stock of one-for-a-quarter neck-
